Preface

This book is the story of the descendants of Little Berry Moore. Following the listing of the descendants of Little Berry Moore, I have included the ancestor lists of the spouses of some of Berry's descendants. I made no effort to verify these associated lines, but have included them as they were given to me.

How to Use This Book

Each person in the book is given a number beginning with Little Berry Moore (M) and digits are added for each generation. For example M-3-5-2-1 denotes that the person was the first child of M-3-5-2 who was the second child of M-3-5 who was the fifth child of M-3 who was the third child of M (Little Berry Moore).

By finding the number of the person you wish to trace and then dropping the last digit, you can quickly follow backward. By taking a number and adding digits you can also move forward through the book.

Beginning with Little Berry's children, the book is further divided into chapters, one for each of his children. Some of these are broken into smaller sections to reduce the inevitable confusion. This is done to make your journey through the book easier.

Little Berry was born in GA. Nancy was born in GA and was the daughter of Sarah Perry and Joseph P. Brooks. Sarah was the daughter of Walter and Elizabeth Perry, Sr. She was born 13 Dec 1787 in Virginia and died after 1863 in Lauderdale County, MS. She and Joseph were married 21 December 1806, place unknown. Joseph was born 14 October 1783, Maryland, and died 26 August 1856, Lauderdale County, Mississippi. Little Berry and Nancy were married in Taliaferro, GA. Their marriage is recorded on page 92, Marriage Book A - Whites.

They settled near present day Duffee in the northeast corner of Newton County, Mississippi. He was a miller, gunmaker, active Mason and was a Justice of the Peace from 1858 through 1860 for Lauderdale County, MS. The area around his mill became a small town known as Moore's Mill and included a post office. They are buried in Spring Hill Cemetery near his mill. His grave has a five foot white marble marker decorated with a Masonic emblem. Nancy is buried beside L. B. in an unmarked grave.

His tombstone reads:

L. B. Moore

Born December 13, 1813
Died November 27, 1879

By his many deeds of Masonic Charity
He erected in the hearts of his fellow
Men an enduring Monument.

As distant lands beyond the sea
When friends go thence draw nigh;
So Heaven, when friends have thither gone,
Draws nearer from the sky.

And as those lands the dearer grow,
When friends are long away;
So Heaven itself through loved ones dead
Grows nearer day by day.

The following is an interview with Charles Moore by Merrill Moore Willis 8 Nov 1987: My dad was Joseph Brooks Moore and he was buried at Hamrick Cemetery, Collinsville, MS. He was born over near Moore's Mill in Newton County where L. B. Moore had the mill. The old home blew away in a tornado in the 1940's, I think.

The story that was told to me by my dad was that three brothers got big grinding mills from England. They came from North Carolina and brought the mills. On the way down here a baby girl died and was buried along the roadside. My grandfather Thomas J. Moore, may have been a brother to her, I don't know for sure whose child it was.

The three brothers came maybe through Georgia and settled in Mississippi. My great-grandfather, L. B. Moore had land and a mill on a fork in Tallashee Creek in Newton County where "Moore's Mill" was located. Another brother settled in Kemper County, Mississippi, and the third one was located in Lauderdale County, near Collinsville, near where the reservoir is now.

L. B. Moore is buried in Gray's Cemetery, on land that now belongs to Mrs. Victor Castle. The old Joseph Brooks place is just north of Duffee. Dad said we were related to Wells, Clearmanses, and Brooks over there. I went fishing on the creek there with my dad lots when I was a little boy. From the way he talked, there was probably a little village at Moore's Mill where they had a store, post office, blacksmith, as well as a mill for grinding corn. L. B. Moore had lots of land but I do not know his brothers' names or if his parents came to Mississippi.

Berry was born in Lauderdale county, MS. Both are buried in the Hamrick Cemetery in Lauderdale County, MS. Berry was a carpenter and farmer. He worked at a Powder Plant at Old Hickory, TN during WWI. Lula was the daughter of William Henry (Bill) Parker and Martha Mildreth (Mattie) Davis of Kemper/Lauderdale Counties, MS. Lula had brown eyes and black hair. She was 4 feet, 11 inches tall, loved nature, collected rocks, flowers, and stamps, and was an avid gardener. A noted horticulturist, Ben Arthur Davis named a patented daylily "Miss Lula" for her. The Collinsville community has a "Miss Lula" garden club in her honor.

My dad told me how Grandpa Moore became a carpenter. A neighbor was a carpenter and came by wanting Grandpa to go with him to Tennessee and work as a carpenter's helper. When they arrived, the man doing the hiring sat them in a chair and gave them a 2x4 and a saw and told them to saw the 2x4 in half. The man who was a carpenter thought this was a stupid thing to expect a carpenter to do, and he just cut the 2x4 quickly. Grandpa made his cut slowly and carefully. When they finished, the man stood the cut peices on end. Grandpa's stood up and his friend's boards fell over. Grandpa was hired as a carpenter and his friend as a helper. The helper trained Grandpa, and he became a carpenter in his own right. Daddy would tell me this when he thought I was doing sloppy work just to get by. (Walter Moore)

Ancestry of Nancy E. Brooke

This history of the Brooke family was frunished by Dr. Harold Graham, Belle Chasse, LA. It is taken from a photocopy of a family bible belived to have been recorded by Sarah Perry Brooke. In Dr. Graham's history, the spelling of "Brooke" was used while the Moore family traditionally uses "Brooks". Double entries are made in the index for those Brooke/Brooks individuals.

b 13 Dec 1787 da 1863 m 21 Dec 1806 Joseph P. Brooke b 14 Oct 1783 d 26 Aug 1856
Sarah was born in Virginia. She was living in Lauderdale County, MS in 1863. Joseph was born in Maryland and died in Lauderdale County, MS. After arriving in Georgia, they settled in the eastern section of Wilkes County that was later merged into Taliferro County. They probably attended Locust Grove Catholic Church in neighboring Warren County as there are a number of Brook burials in this cemetery. They migrated to Marion, Lauderdale County, Mississippi, about 1845. Joseph and Sarah bought a town lot in Marion, purchasing also additional land before his death in 1856. Joseph served as one of the earlier Probate Judges of Lauderdale County, MS. Both he and a son, James, are known to have been attorneys, and it is suspected that James returned to Taliferro County to practice law. They were closely affiliated with Alexander Hamilton Stephens, attorney, and later, Vice-President of the Confederacy.
Joseph is mentioned as a "cousin" in the will of James B. Thompson (Wilkes County, GA, Book B, p. 26).

Avarilla was born in Dallas County, AL. Elbert was born in GA. With several small children at home, Elbert went to Dalton, GA, on 20 March 1864 where he became a Private in Company I, 8th Regiment, Mississippi Volunteers, CSA, under Lieutenant Alsa Carrol Pace, who was a neighbor of his from MS. He enlisted for the duration of the war. He became very ill within a short time and asked Lt Pace to leave him hidden in vines on Kenesaw Mountain, GA, when the army had to move. He knew that he would be a hindrance to the Regiment. On 27 June 1864, he was captured by forces under General W. T. Sherman. Elbert Davis was sent to Nashville, TN on 13 July 1864; Louisville, KY, on 15 July 1864; and Camp Douglas, IL 18 Jul 1864. He died in prison at Camp Douglas, IL 26 Oct 1864 and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Chicago, IL. Avarilla remarried in Lauderdale County, MS. She died after a lengthy illness and was buried in an unmarked grave near her home. The exact location of her grave is not known. Their son Nathaniel married Lt Pace's daughter.

E-2-4-3-4 Nathaniel Newton (Nat) Davis

bca 23 Mar 1861 d 15 Sep 1919 m 1 Feb 1891 Fannie Thompson Pace

Nathaniel was born in MS. His father died while a prisoner in Illinois during the Civil War when Nat was very young. He cared for his mother until she died in January 1891, and married Fannie Pace, a school teacher, the next month. She was the daughter of Lt. Alsa Carrol Pace, commander of Nat's father's CSA unit. He started farming in Lauderdale County, but after flooding from a nearby stream destroyed his crops three years in a row, he decided to move to better land in Jones County. Nat and Fannie are buried in Crosby Cemetery west of Ellisville, MS.

mca(2) 1856 Louisa Ann (Annie) Tidwell bca 1838
Thomas and Mary were married in Marion County, GA (Marion County Marriages Book A 1844-1866 page 126). Mary and Louisa were sisters. They were daughters of Eleanor Baggett and Henry Samuel Tidwell. Thomas was born in GA. He was a Private in Company D (Neshoba Rifles), 11th MS Infantry, CSA 13 Apr 1861 through 21 Jun 1861. He was discharged with a disability for Chronic Nephritis. Family tradition suggests that Thomas was extremely ill. He came home to Neshoba County, MS, ate one meal, and died. Louisa was born in South Carolina.
